

FOKUS GLOBAL ARTIST:
CHANNEL ONE

SOUL

Channel One's debut EP 'Soul' is an exploration of how the digital world infiltrates our human psyches. Through lush synthetics, broken rhythms, and mechanical atmospheres, 'Soul' bridges human spirituality and euphoria with future synthesis and algorithmic expression.

ABOUT: Channel One is a duo composed of Ethan Cohen and Hunter Philip. Based both in New York City and Seattle, the two use individual influence to create atmospheric and genre-bending work for speculative listening and dancefloor energy.
